

MYSTERY BOOK

Parent Edition!

Wow!

What a fabulous response we have had to the Parent Mystery Reader! I was expecting just a handful of parents to sign up and I have been inundated.

Books will be coming out shortly, but it looks like I will be splitting parents into a number of 'Mystery Read Groups' in order for books to be passed around quickly.

In terms of how this initiative will run, I expect to hand out a few Mystery Reader Black Folders to parents. Once these parents have read their book and shared it with their child/children, it will be returned to school and I will then reissue it to the next parent on my list. You may be lucky and receive it quickly but equally, you may have to wait a few weeks before it arrives in your eager little hands! Either way, I am sure we can all agree the excitement will mount as soon as the books start making the rounds!

I can't wait to start handing out the black folders of joy..... no doubt you'll see me skulking around the gate some time soon!
